DESCRIPTION

Roof X Tender™ is a program designed to educate and teach contractors about the maintenance and restoration market. It is specifically designed to help contractors expand their business, grow profits and provide value added solutions for their customers.

Roof maintenance and restoration is the fastest growing segment of the roofing industry. As the economy slows and credit markets tighten, building owners are seeking re-roofing alternatives. Why miss opportunities when you can continue servicing your customers in a profitable manner. Use of the Roof X Tender program will teach your company new methods of tapping this highly profitable and expanding market while strengthening relationships with new and existing customers and providing viable solutions to meet their needs.
